Poor Washoe.

The Carson Index gives as follows:

Poor Washoe seems secure in her shell of Democracy. Powning did it. But no matter who did it, it is done. Washoe is Democratic, the rest of the State is Republican. Washoe is Democratic not from principle but from spite. The nose is cut off to spite the face, horrid spectacle. The first heat, the primaries, was fairly won by the Republicans; second heat, the election, was given to the Democracy on a foul. There is left one other contest in which Washoe is to be pitted against the rest of the State. But Washoe is in disgrace, and without backers in the coming contest. It is proposed that the next Republican Legislature refuse to make any appropriations for the State University, and possibly may move to Carson; that it shall lose its Insane Asylum; that Washoe's favorite, Frank Bell, be not re-appointed to the Wardenship of the State Prison; that the part of Washoe which was formerly Roop, be given to Hueyboldt; that eastern Washoe, including Wadsworth, be given to Churchill; that the part bordering on Ormsby, including Washoe City, be given to Ormsby; in short, that the wayward child of which Powning is the God-mother shall be deprived of its luxuries and be disciplined. Poor Washoe, instead of following in a silly crusade against the Stewart Castle, it had better repudiate its leadership, repent its late folly in sackcloth and ashes and fortify itself well against its political enemies.

The Kind of a Democratic Powning It Is.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—The Times' Washington special says: Its has been learned that the suspension of C. C. Powning, Surveyor General of Nevada, last week, was upon a complaint of flagrant and pernicious activity. The charges submitted were accompanied by clippings from his paper showing that the extracts were articles written of a very virulent character against the Administration. His conduct, it is said has been the cause of earnest and continuous complaint from Nevada Democrats, who have been aching to get him out, and there was no small rejoicing when the President bounced him.

The JOURNAL does not think there is anything in the point that Stewart is not eligible to the Senate because of the Constitutional amendment adopted at the late election requiring one year's residence. The Senate is alone the judge of the qualifications of its members, and no State Constitutional provision adverse to the United States laws regulating the election of Senators would be of force or effect. This was established in the case of Cuilom, of Illinois, who was Governor at the time of his election while the Illinois Constitution provided that no Governor should be eligible.

The Index advances the very sensible idea of having the State build a gubernatorial mansion. The Governor-elect has been on the hunt for a house for some weeks and the property owners of this city seem to be spending their time running down their neighbors property—Carson Appeal.

Locate the Capital at Reno and Reno will give the Governor a mansion.

An arrangement is contemplated whereby Henry George shall deliver lectures in every city in the United States before workingmen, urging them to form branches of the National Labor party and Progressive Democracy.

The Chronicle talk of a "sugar coated bill." Never heard of such a bill before.—Carson Appeal.

Of course you have heard of Stewart's silver certificates.

The annual report of Postmaster General Vilas shows that during the last fiscal year, 100,000,000 more letters were mailed in the United States than Great Britain.

The prominent men of the nation are passing away rapidly, and the necrological table of 1886 will astonish the thoughtful.

Ex-President Arthur has been laid away to rest. May his slumbers be as peaceful and pleasant as his life.

Charles Francis Adams died at his home in Boston Sunday morning.

THE WASHOE MINSTRELS.

The Magnificent Combination Soon to take the Head. Full Description of the Leading Barn-Stormers of Nevada.

Sam Davis wrote the following in the Carson Appeal of Sunday last:

The announcement made some weeks ago that the Washoe Minstrels were soon to take the road and make an extended tour of the State induced the editor of the Appeal to send to the Reno JOURNAL for a programme of the performance and some further particulars of the contemplated trip. Yesterday we received the following play-bill, which fully explains the main features of the show. We publish it in the entirety as follows:

The Washoe Minstrels

The Winter Season. Engagement Extraordinary. Grand Farewell tour of Nevada.

Notice to the Public:—The phenomenal success of the Washoe Minstrels under the able management of Washoe's favorite Mugwump, the Hon. C. C. Powning (late of the Surveyor General's troupe), has made such an impression on the community that a grand tour of the State has been determined upon. The very best of home talent has been engaged, and no pains or expense will be spared to make the trip one never to be forgotten by the people of Nevada. Considering the large amount of territory to be covered there will be but one appearance in each town. Local managers wishing to secure this troupe for one night only will find it to their advantage to fill dates at once.

For terms and other particulars apply to,

JAMES G. FAIR,
Manager, Palace Hotel, San Francisco, Cal.

Note. Robert H. Lindsay, of Reno, is my authorized advance agent, and fully empowered to make terms with the press.

The house programme bearing the Reno JOURNAL imprint, is well worth publishing. It is as follows:

(Grand Farewell Tour.

The Powning-Lindsay Combination, Under the Management of James G. Fair, Will Appear in all the principal towns of Nevada during the Season.

C. C. Powning....Stage Manager
E. H. Lindsay.....Advance Agent
E. M. Daggett.....Scene Shifter
Geo. W. Cassidy.....Treasurer

New Scenery! New Music! New Mechanical Effects! Popular Prices! No Extra Charge for Reserved Seats!

The following talent has been engaged at great expense, and will positively appear as advertised:

Christopher Columbus Powning (the only Powning!), late of the G. O. P. Combination, solo song and dance, high kicking specialist and acrobatic feats. Must be seen nightly to be appreciated. Having severed his connection with the Uncle Sam Troupe is now with this combination. All other troupes advertising C. C. Powning will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Mons. Robert Lindsay, Specialty artist, end man, mimic acts, ventriloquist and solo banjoist. His song, "Take it, Bob! Take it, Bob!" will positively be sung at each and every performance.

Sig. Georgene Gnilianne Cassidi (the Eureka Wonder); engaged as interlocutor at an annual salary. Sig. Cassidi has cancelled all other engagements to fill dates with this combination.

Prof. Rollie M. Daggett (late of His Majesty's High-Jack Combination) by kind permission of King Kalakaua, of the Sandwich Islands, in his dazzling acrobatic feats, balancing and political juggling acts. Acknowledged the highest kicker on any stage.

Sir Thomas Wren (late of the Base Range Novelty Combination) in his great character impersonations.

Mon. Arthur McEwan, patenter of the famous "portable sewer," in his mud-throwing feats. Throws mud with both hands in four different directions at once. Engaged for three weeks only.

Col. A. C. Ellis (late of the Gen. Price Troupe), parlor songs and genteel comedy.

Major Garrardi, Anti-Chinese and Labor Movement impersonator, in his great Hanky Panky acts.

The above are only the leading solo performers of the troupe. The Democratic State Central Committee have volunteered to act as supers, scene shifters, musicians and baggage smashers while accompanying the outfit.

ROBERT H. LINDSAY,
General Advance Agent and Female Impersonator.

PROGRAMME:

Grand Opening, "Home Rule Chorus."

By the Entire Company.

[During the rendition of this piece de resistance the throwing of eggs, vegetables and California fruit on the stage is strictly prohibited, and the ushers and local police will enforce this rule.]

"Farewell Mine! Own" (Solo), C. C. Powning.

"Dollars to Dumplings" (Baritone solo), Signor Cassidi.

"When the Robins Nest Again" (ballad) Sir Thomas Wren.

"When I Drew My Snicker Snee" (Singing Song), R. M. Daggett.

"Maryland, My Maryland!" (Sympathetic Ballad, with broken harp accompaniment), Col. A. C. Ellis.

[The encore for this piece will be furnished by the State Central Committee.]

"Free Trade Medley," (with joint basso accompaniment), J. H. McMillan.

"I Hope I Don't Intrude," (song and dance, double clog), Powning and Lindsay.

"Three Little Maids from School," Powning, Lindsay and Ellis.

[The costumes for this song have been loaned by Doctor Hogan, late of the Greenback party of Reno.]

Recess of one hour for the audience to prepare for the next part.

Part II.

Grand Illuminated Tableau—"The Sacking of Reno"—Thompson's Flour Mill in the background painted by Laycock. Living Statuary by Powning and Lindsay. "Fair Defying the authorities" (Obtained by Richard Dey from sketches in his possession.)

"Columbus Discovering Nevada," (Grand Allegorical work. The slab from which this piece of sculpture was carved was furnished by Warden Bell of the States' Prison quarry.)

"Founding of Reno." (Historical tableau, representing Powning driving the first stakes.)

"Scenes from Poker-haunt-us, by Rollie M. Daggett, representing Indian maiden in the act of "Passing the Buck."

"Anti-Monopoly." (Representing C. C. Powning and the editor of the Virginia Chronicle pulling up railroad tracks and burning freight depots, Steve Gage and Leeland Stanford hanging to Reno Iron Bridge in the distance. Firecracker passes flying from performer's pockets.)

Usual Recess.

Part III.

The whole will conclude with the still-splitting farcical comedy in one act entitled, "The Political Refugees, or the Hunt for Office," with C. C. Powning in the title role.

During the rendition of this piece a regular fire company will be in attendance to throw water on fainting women, and men falling off their seats in merriment will be dragged out by gentlemanly ushers. The red fire and music for the final tableau has been furnished free of charge by the Dingwumps of Washoe and Ormsby counties.

Notwithstanding the enormous expense attending this engagement the usual popular prices of admission will be maintained.

Afternoon matinees for ladies and children only, in each town.

Each person purchasing a ticket will be given a photograph of the Reno Adonis, with C. C. Powning's signature in blue ink on each one.

Newspapers refusing to speak in complimentary terms of this show will not be furnished passes and advertisements.

A Democratic politician supposed to know something about Secretary Whitney's hopes and wishes has intimated to the Tribune's Washington correspondent that there is a probability that Postmaster Pearson will be removed. He added: "The removal of Pearson is one of several things that must be accomplished if Cleveland is to be the Democratic candidate in 1888."

THE OVERLAND MONTHLY.—The Overland Monthly for December will contain several stories by new writers, chapters of two serials, important Californian sketches, announcements for the year 1887, and a history of the growth and development of the magazine. I will be a most valuable number to buy and send East to friends.

Judge John H. Boalt's article on "The Silver Question" in the November number of the Overland Monthly has received wide and favorable comment from the press of the Pacific Coast, and the Overland Monthly Publishing Company will soon issue it in pamphlet form. The first edition of fifteen hundred copies of this pamphlet has been sold on advance orders.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PUBLIC.—The Palace Bakery folks do make their candy, and do not import cheap adulterated goods. We commenced candy making 18 months ago, and said then as now, that we don't give up what we once undertake to do. Our candy trade has increased 25 per cent. since, for which we feel thankful to the public. We do not only make candy once a week, but every day in the week, and we will be pleased to show our shop to any one. Our place shall be known after this as the Nevada Cracker and Candy Factory. We sell candy wholesale and retail. Leave your money in Reno, don't send elsewhere. Respectfully,

O. Hartung.

SCHOOL REPORT.—The following is the school report of Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls for the month ending November 17th:

Roll of Honor—Fannie Dyer, 99; Nettie Rising, 99.

Roll of Merit—Lydia Hoskings, Mary Lucas, Minnie Bishop, Hattie Higgins, Clara Bishop, Alice Sheldon, Susie Shoemaker, Clara Martin, Nellie Boardman, Florence Layton, Minnie Atchinson, Hattie Mason, Gertrude Martin.

Music Roll of Honor—Hattie Higgins, Annie Becker.

STATE UNIVERSITY EXERCISES.—Every Wednesday afternoon, beginning at 1:30 o'clock, the students at the State University participate in literary exercises, at any or all of which visitors are at liberty to be present. They consist of a pleasing variety of music, vocal and instrumental, essay, recitation, paper, biography, oration, debate, dialogue, etc., and are under the direct supervision of the faculty.

STATE LANDS.—During the week ending last Saturday applications were filed for 5,432 87 acres at $1 25 and 100 acres at $2 50, on all of which was deposited the sum of $1,438 22, meanwhile contract payments amounted to $345 09, making total receipts for the week $1,783 31.

The Seth Thomas Clock Co., of Thomaston, Conn., have prepared drawings for the great clock which is to be placed in the tower of the new City Hall at Philadelphia, and which, if completed in accordance with their plans, will be the largest in the world. The bells upon which it will strike the hours and quarters will weigh fifty thousand pounds and the glass dials, as contemplated, measure 25 feet in diameter.

President Cleveland has appointed Mr. Irish, of Iowa, U. S. Surveyor General of Nevada, to succeed Mr. G. O. Powning. Is the President laboring under the impression that the Silver State does not possess men of sufficient intelligence to administer the affairs of such an office? or does our Chief Executive propose to make Nevada the ward of other States. Can the Nevada Democracy stand this?—Genoa Courier.

THE PRESIDENCY.

The S. F. Post remarks:

Congressman Morrow, in favoring an interview with his opinions upon the subject of the Presidential contest in 1888, has given it as his judgment that the Republican party will not bestow its nomination upon any man who cannot carry New York. If Mr. Blaine shall be an aspirant again, his chances will depend upon the convention's estimate of his ability to succeed there. He failed in 1884 because the Empire State was lost. But he lost it by so small a plurality—1,017, in a total vote of 1,171,312—that his partisans may very plausibly claim that it should not count against him. If the vote were taken over again to-morrow, Blaine and Cleveland being the candidates, there are few who would venture to expect that the latter would come within many thousands of the figure which he was so lucky as to achieve two years ago.

Among the Western men who are mentioned for the Presidency, Mr. Morrow places Senator Stanford at the head, because of his strength in New York. He is well known there, because of his large interests and extensively ramified business, political and social relations. But Senator Stanford does not encourage his friends in the advocacy of his merits. He announces once more, through a morning contemporary, that he will not seek the nomination.

A ticket has been frequently proposed which meets with the warm approval of many of the adherents of the Maine statesman. It gives Gilpin the first and Stanford the second place. The Senator's supporters would, of course, prefer his nomination to the higher station, but failing that, they would no doubt, gladly see him named for the Vice Presidency. In either case the Pacific Coast would be assured to the Republican party.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer calls Nevada a "pocket borough." The appellation is perhaps an apt one. Its voters certainly burrowed pretty deeply into the pockets of Mr. Stewart's backers at the last election in this State.—Eureka Sentinel.

By the way, what has become of the Cleveland backbone that we used to hear so much about? It seems to have fallen into "reposeous desuetude?"—See, See.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. It is the best available. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mother, there is no medicine about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Tab. 11-W-IV
